CONFERENCE: “The Role of Psychotherapy in a Healthy Ireland.”

VENUE: Radisson Blu Hotel, Golden Lane, Dublin 8.

Psychotherapy plays a central role in the management of mental illness and good mental health, in an Irish population becoming more aware of our personal mental health.

The Irish Council for Psychotherapy (ICP) in partnership with Nessa Childers MEP will hold a national conference which will be of interest to those working in and supporting the role of psychotherapy in the Irish health services.

The conference is aimed at health professionals and policy makers.

The ICP represents more than 1,500 registered psychotherapists in Ireland, with 11 member organisations.
