

What is this conference about?

This conference will focus on 'The Role of Psychotherapy in a Healthy Ireland' - to facilitate awareness of the role of this key specialty in the delivery of mental health services in Ireland, within the context of the reform of health services.

Who is it for and why should I go?

The conference is aimed at health professionals and policy makers. It is also important for those working and involved in mental health services in Ireland.

When is it happening?

Wednesday 18th October, 2017 - an all day conference from 9.30am to 4pm.

Where will it take place and how do I get there?

Radisson Blu Hotel, Golden Lane, Dublin. The hotel has 60 underground parking spaces available to hotel guests at EUR 15/per 12 hours (meeting, conference or event guests, 07:00 - 19:00). It is a five minute walk to the Luas terminus at St Stephen's Green. Dublin Bus also has a number of routes that service the area.

Who will be speaking & chairing the event?

Nessa Childers, MEP

Anne Colgan, Chair of Irish Council for Psychotherapy

Barbara Fitzgerald, Chair of the Psychoanalytic Section of ICP

Dr. Pat Bracken

Senator Colette Kelleher

Jean Manahan, CEO of Irish Council for Psychotherapy

José Castilho, Irish Council for Psychotherapy

Trish Murphy, Irish Council for Psychotherapy

Is it free to attend?

Yes, but booking is essential. The conference is being funded by the Group of the Progressive Alliance of Socialists & Democrats in the European Parliament and held in partnership with Nessa Childers, MEP.

Is lunch included?

Yes, a light lunch will be provided.

Can I get CPD points for attending?

Yes, CPD points will be available where applicable.

How do I book my ticket?

You can book your ticket online.