

Nessa Childers MEP is a Member of the Group of the Progressive Alliance of the Socialists and Democrats in the European Parliament representing Dublin and is a full member of the Committee for Environment, Public Health and Food Safety. Her policy priorities are in the areas of public health and transparency in public life. Because of her interest in public health, Nessa is also involved in several European Parliament working groups: she is Co-

Chair of the European Parliament Mental Health Interest Group, Vice-Chair of the European Alzheimer's Alliance, Co-Chair of MEPs Against Cancer and was recently appointed Chair of the European Parliament working group on Access to Medicines and Healthcare to Combat Poverty Related Diseases. Prior to being elected to the European Parliament for the first time in 2009, Nessa worked in private practice as a psychotherapist for over twenty-five years.

Nessa will today discuss Brexit and the concept of physical boundary, and Brexit anxiety. Nessa will also touch upon the reasons why Brexit occurred, and the failure of the Left to deal with the problems in the EU and the fragmentation and subsequent aggression in British politics.
